

INFIRAY OUTDOOR
RICO G-SERIES

Rugged Infrared Compact Optic

The InfiRay Outdoor RICO G-Series is a compact and powerful optic, seamlessly combining InfiRay's industry-leading 12 μm detector technology and a 1024x768 AMOLED display guaranteeing a crisp, high-contrast image. The RICO G-Series takes image processing to an incredible level with advanced image correction and automatic image optimization courtesy of its MATRIX III processor. Additional features include image and video capture with 32GB of storage, wireless streaming, and two field-swappable IBP-2 batteries, which combined with the built-in battery provide a run-time of 11+ hours.
